

Terms and Conditions for the Turner's $1000 Free Petrol on selected vehicles

Customer means any person who is over the age of 16, ordinarily lives in New Zealand and purchases a Vehicle at the advertised price

Promotion means the offer described in these terms and conditions

Promotion Period means from 1st October to 5:00 pm on 31st October 2022.

Turners means Turners Group NZ Limited.

Vehicle means any one of the selected motor vehicles offered for sale by Turners during the Promotion Period where either an advertisement for that vehicle or the vehicle itself identifies that the Vehicle is included in this Promotion.

1. Turners will give every Customer who purchases a Vehicle a fuel card to the value of $1,000 including GST after their purchase. This will be sent via courier or given in branch.
2. If for any reason a Customer returns the Vehicle to Turners within 30 days the Customer will be refunded the Vehicle price less the $1,000 for the fuel card.
3. By participating in the Promotion, a Customer:
 - (a) agrees to these terms and conditions; and
 - (b) gives Turners consent to use the Customer's personal details to conduct this Promotion and use the Customer's name and image in any related publicity (which may include disclosure to third parties for processing and analysis of the Promotion).
4. Turners will use the email address you provide to send unsolicited information about products and services in electronic form. You may request that Turners delete your email address at any time by either contacting Turners in writing, email or using the functional unsubscribe feature on an email you may have received from Turners.
